

Title: West County

The facility has a headworks with grit and FOG removal, followed by a primary clarifier. The secondary treatment includes four activated sludge basins and clarifiers. The secondary effluent then passes through the chlorine contact tank before discharge.